Class News

Oak—this term we are looking forward to hosting our guests for lunch on 6th July. In class, we are also looking forward to designing and making a fruit salad and we are continuing our learning about plants.

Beech— In D & T we are going to be designing and making our own purses. We are also preparing games for our summer fair.

Sycamore—in Science, we are learning about forces and in D & T we are looking forward to making our own picnic. We are also looking forward to our trip to Castle Howard.

Welcome!

A warm welcome to Mrs Dryburgh, Miss Bridgeman, Miss Cook and Mrs Bailey who have joined the school running our After School Club. The first week of club has gone really well.

If you would like to make any bookings for After School Club, please email or phone the office.

Coronation Wildflower Meadows

This week the children have been helping to plant the flowers for our coronation wildflower meadow. We are very grateful to the Howardian Hills AONB Project who have helped to fund this.

School Uniform

The PTA have lots of pre-loved uniform available to buy for very reasonable prices. A list will be sent out next week with all the items available if you would like to buy any.

Class Photos

Class photos were taken on Tuesday. More information will be sent out shortly on how you can order them.
